Wisteria Cottage

780 PROSPECT STREET
Built in 1914 as a private residence, this building has served several purposes including a high school, a women’s residence, a church hall, and a yacht club. It presently houses galleries of the La Jolla Historical Society, whose 2009 renovation included numerous historic preservation awards. In the early 1900s, La Jolla was home to many artists, including Georgia O’Keeffe and Georgia Gibbs. The building is now home to a variety of art galleries and stores.

Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego

780 PROSPECT STREET
The museum, which began as the La Jolla Art Center in 1941, is located on the site of what is now the Scripps Research Institute. The building was designed by architect Irving Gill in 1913. The museum now houses a collection of modern and contemporary art, as well as major figures in international contemporary art.

Park Prospect Condominiums

800 PROSPECT STREET
Designed by architect Irving Gill in 1913, this building was designed to provide a model for middle-class living in the country in the early 20th century. The architecture, employing the Arts and Crafts movement, is considered innovative for its time. The building is located on the corner of Park Place and Prospect Street.

La Jolla Jollification Center

615 PROSPECT STREET
Designed by architect Irving Gill, the Jollification Center was completed in 1913 and was designed for the Scripps family as a place to relax and enjoy leisure activity. It features a large outdoor swimming pool, a gymnasium, and other recreational facilities.

La Jolla Woman’s Club

715 SILVERADO STREET
The La Jolla Woman’s Club was established in 1935 and has been the center of many cultural and social events in La Jolla. It is housed in a historic building designed by architect Irving Gill in 1914.

La Jolla Beach Community Inn

775 DRAPER AVENUE
This historic inn was built in 1923 and is one of the oldest hotels in La Jolla. It has been completely restored and now offers modern amenities while maintaining its historic charm.

St. James by-the-Sea Episcopal Church

765 PROSPECT STREET
Located on the corner of Street Level and Prospect Street, this church was built in 1914 and is considered one of the finest examples of Spanish Revival architecture in the city. It features a large stained glass window and a beautiful wooden altar.

St. Alfonso’s Church

765 PROSPECT STREET
This historic church was built in 1912 and is one of the oldest churches in La Jolla. It features a beautiful stained glass window and a large organ.

La Jolla Post Office

1140 WALL STREET
This historic post office was built in 1913 and is one of the oldest buildings in La Jolla. It features a beautiful Art Deco design and has been listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Union Congregational Church

CORNER CAVE STREET AND MANEcke AVENUE
This historic church was built in 1905 and is one of the oldest churches in La Jolla. It features a beautiful stained glass window and a large organ.

Jefferson Gallery

7751 YAVINHO AVENUE
This historic gallery was built in 1914 and is one of the oldest galleries in La Jolla. It features a beautiful stained glass window and a large organ.

La Valdula

765-51 DRURY AVENUE
This historic home was built in 1915 and is one of the oldest homes in La Jolla. It features a beautiful stained glass window and a large organ.

The Arcade

780 BLOCK OF GIRAUD AVENUE
This historic building was built in 1928 and is one of the oldest shopping centers in La Jolla. It features a beautiful stained glass window and a large organ.

The Athenaeum Music and Arts Library

1008 WALL STREET
This historic library was built in 1921 and is one of the oldest libraries in La Jolla. It features a beautiful stained glass window and a large organ.

La Valencia/Cabrillo Hotels

1323 PROSPECT STREET
This historic hotel was built in 1909 and is one of the oldest hotels in La Jolla. It features a beautiful stained glass window and a large organ.

The Grande Colonial

790 PROSPECT STREET
This historic hotel was built in 1923 and is one of the oldest hotels in La Jolla. It features a beautiful stained glass window and a large organ.